Colorado PERA Hires New Director of Investment Operations

DENVER—Colorado PERA recently named Thomas Liddy as its director of Investment Operations. Liddy began his new responsibilities on August 11.

As director of Investment Operations, Liddy will monitor and oversee investment contracts, trade settlements, and cash flow to ensure compliance with legal guidelines, investment policies, strategies, practices, and procedures.

Liddy most recently worked for Janus Capital Group from April 2000 to April 2004 as the supervisor in fund accounting operations. Prior to that he worked at OppenheimerFunds as a manager in mutual fund accounting operations.

Liddy received his bachelor's degree in business administration with emphases in finance and accounting and a minor in economics from the University of Colorado at Denver. He holds Series 6 and Series 7 securities licenses.

"I am very excited to join a group as talented as the one at Colorado PERA," said Liddy. "My focus will be on continuing PERA's commitment to provide high standards of service and endorsing the principles of integrity within our operations."

Liddy replaced Daryl Roberts who retired at the end of August.

Colorado PERA provides retirement and other benefits to the employees of over 390 government entities in the state of Colorado. PERA is the 25th largest public pension fund in the nation with over $29 billion in assets.
